BATTLE OF PORT JEFFERSON

LIVING HISTORY DAY
FRIDAY, MAY 4, 2012

Dear Educators:

The Marion County Chamber of Commerce is pleased to invite your school to attend a day of learning about the War Between the States. The reenactors will bring the Civil War to life with demonstrations, discussions, maps, and activities to help explain the very difficult experience people suffered during this time in history.

General Information:

Date of Living History Day:	Friday, May 4, 2012 (actual battles are May 5th and 6th)
Time:	Living History Day will be 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Each school attending will have a confirmed reservation as to what time to be at the Battlefield.
Tour:	Please plan to be on site for two hours
Cost:	$2.00 per person
Location:	Tuscumbia Ranch, owned by the Key Family, on FM 134 South, (toward Caddo Lake), two miles south of Jefferson, Texas and one mile south from Twin Oaks Plantation Inn. The Battlefield is across from the Big Cypress Airport.
What to wear:	Walking shoes and jeans. You will be in a pasture. Hats are acceptable.
Lunch / Snack:	All food items must be completely disposable. Lions Park, in Jefferson, is a nice park if you want to eat somewhere other than the pasture land of the Battlefield.
To confirm a reservation:	Please review the following confirmation sheet. Complete the form and mail with a check ($2.00 per person) to: Marion County Chamber of Commerce 101 N. Polk Street Jefferson, Texas 75657 Attn: Living History Day
Payment to:	All checks/money orders are payable to: Marion County Chamber of Commerce (Proceeds are to the Marion County Chamber of Commerce)
Questions:	Chamber: 903-665-2672 / jeffersontx1@att.net

We look forward to seeing you,

Kayann Hollomon, Living History Coordinator
